14/5/2011-Nilamber-Pitamber University/Review/RU-III

7th November, 2012

Respected Arjun jee,

I am writing this in connection with the lower representation of various categories, including Scheduled Tribes, both in teaching and non-teaching posts in the Universities/educational institutions in the State of Jharkhand vis-a-vis stipulated provisions in the Constitution.

2. The Commission has noted with concern in the review meetings with the University of Ranchi earlier and, recently with the Principal Secretary, Personnel, Admn. & Reforms, Govt. of Jharkhand and the Nilamber-Pitamber University on 02/11/2012 (Summary record of the proceedings enclosed) that the Constitutional right of certain categories including STs to have stipulated representation in service in the Universities/ Education institutions in the State is not being met as a result of the present practice being followed by these Universities, which indicates that the DoPT's instructions contained in the O.M. No. 1/4/70-Estt. (SCT) dated 11/11/1971 regarding grouping of posts are not being adhered to. I would like to mention that the DoPT instructions vide O.M. quoted above are specifically meant to secure adequate representation of STs along with other categories in isolated posts or in small cadres, post of similar status and salary. The Secretary, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India and the Chairman, UGC have also confirmed adherence to these instructions in the Central Universities in the meeting taken by the Commission on 31/10/2012.

3. Considering the position brought out above, I would request you to have the present policy of the State Govt. in the matter reviewed so as to pave way for implementation of the said DoPTs instructions on grouping of posts which would to facilitate improved level of representation of STs at all levels in the Universities/Educational Institutions thereby meeting the Constitutional provisions in this regard. I would also request you to have the Commission apprised of the action taken by the State Govt. on the subject.

With high regards.

Yours sincerely,

Rameshwar Oraon
